

12. Archangel Michael's March

Michael, dear archangel, august friend,
We will work with you to the end.
Your gracious presence with us ever to defend the seed of God!
O Michael, come! And with your legions lead the way!
With you we'll bring in the new day,
A golden age, God's kingdom come to Earth again,
Our defender, our protector true!

Chorus (Repeat after each verse)

Onward march, blue legions row on row!
Blazing God-protection here below!
Flaming spheres now surround souls whose hearts are true.
Lead on in God-splendor! Service great you render!
Our dear Michael, we love you!

Charging forth, your hosts of light obey
Our calls and enter in the fray
To alter every form of darkness, opposition to the soul!
We call you now! Protect our children, youth, each one
That they may soar right to the sun,
Know mastery, save sentient life, come Home again!
Michael, we are marching now with you!

Faith, beloved archeia true-blue,
With this great gift our souls imbue
Of total faith in God, his purposes, his plan to see us through
Each test and trial, the disciplines that make us strong,
That build our will and give a song
We sing with angel bands as victory we claim!
Our dear Faith, enfire us with your flame!
